

If You Drink And Cruise

You
Have
A Lot To Lose

Before You Drink, Think... About the Consequences

If you're under 21, you could lose your driver's license for any of the following offenses even if you are not driving a vehicle at the time.

- Using or carrying a fake I.D.
- Consumption, possession or transportation of alcohol
- Misrepresenting your age to obtain alcohol

The penalties are:

- A 90-day license suspension
- Fines of up to $300
- Parental notification

If you are driving drunk and kill or seriously injure someone, you can be charged as an adult.

Think About It –
And Say No
To Underage Drinking